

Radim Hradílek is a Partner and CEMAAS Public Sector Leader in IBM Global Business Services. Since 1988, when he finished his studies of power electrical engineering of Mining University in Ostrava, he started to work in Nova Hut. In 1992 he joined Andersen Consulting as an Analyst. When he was leaving in 2000 as a Senior Manager, he has got the overall responsibility for the AIT (automotive, industrial and transportation) Market Unit in the Czech Republic and Slovakia. As a Partner in PricewaterhouseCoopers Management Consulting Services, he was responsible for Industrial Sector in Czech Republic and Supply Chain in Central and Eastern Europe. In the past he had Global Business Services Czech Republic Country Leader position and Global Business Services CEE Leader position in IBM.